RONEEKA KODEES

There aren't many women's basketball teams that can tout eight-year WNBA veterans among its alumni. Florida State can count a couple during Sue Semrau's tenure. In addition to current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff, who spent nine years in the WNBA, Roneeka Hodges just completed her eighth season in the American professional league.

The 2005 Florida State graduate began her career with the Houston Comets (2005-08) before spending time with the Minnesota Lynx (2009), San Antonio Silver Stars (2010-11), the Indiana Fever (2012) and the Tulsa Shock (2012).

Hodges, a 5-11 guard, was traded to the Shock halfway through the 2012 season, and started 16 games for the squad while averaging 10.5 ppg.

"I've been lucky," Hodges said. "I've had eight great seasons, and I'm very grateful for the opportunity. I'm thankful for the opportunity Coach Sue and FSU you gave me. (Being the star at FSU) got me seen and got me known. It sparked my career."

Hodges transferred to the Seminoles from LSU in 2004. Her one season with the Noles was a memorable one. Hodges captured All-ACC First Team honors and led the Seminoles to a 24-8 record and a second-round appearance in the NCAA Tournament. She averaged 19.2 points per game and set a school record for scoring in a game that still stands, dropping 39 points in a thrilling win over Maryland.

"My time at Florida State was short, but it was amazing," Hodges said. "That season was great in general. We got to the tournament for the first time in awhile We started building something special at Florida State."

Hodges was selected 15th overall in the WNBA Draft right after her season completed. She gives credit to Seminoles' head coach Sue Semrau and Florida State for helping develop her game and gain the maturity that comes with a professional basketball career.

"At FSU I became more of an all-around player and I learned a lot about the game," she said. "I love Coach Sue and FSU. Coach Sue and the staff were great people. Florida State got me prepared for adversity and it made me stronger mentally."

Hodges has also carved out a career overseas, playing for a European club nearly every WNBA offseason. In 2011, Hodges averaged 15.5 points per game for Istanbul Universitesi om Turkey. She began the 2012 season with Perfumerias Avenida in Spain.

"It's great," Hodges said. "I've been able to experience so many different cultures and learn so many life lessons playing in different countries. I've taken a lot from my career over there. I've had a lot of unique experiences."

Hodges also spent a season earlier in her career playing with Wyckoff in the Canary Islands in Spain.

"Brooke and I played one year in Spain together," she said. "That was one of my best years – in the Canary Islands."

Hodges has no complaints about her profession and feels lucky to have a career she enjoys - whether its in the United States or overseas.

"I've grown a lot for playing overseas," she said. "It's been great getting to experience the world, and on top of it - getting paid to do something you love. It's a different lifestyle, but it's great to make a living playing basketball."

Hodges is part of a long line of FSU players who have played professionally in recent years. This year former Seminole stars Cierra Bravard, Jacinta Monroe and Britany Miller are playing in Spain in addition to Hodges. Last season, Alicia Gladden, Courtney Ward and Alysha Harvin were also playing in Europe.

In her case, Hodges said she doesn't plan on retiring from the game she loves anytime soon.

"I just turned 30, but I don't feel 30," she said. "I feel young. I'm going to play until I don't have that passion for the game anymore."

SEASON PREVIEW

Buoyed by the return of All-ACC forward Natasha Howard and an experienced five-member senior class, the Florida State women's basketball team is poised for a return to the NCAA Tournament.

The Seminoles went to the "Big Dance" for seven straight seasons from 2005-11 and intend to be back. Head Coach Sue Semrau, a three-time ACC Coach of the Year entering her 16th season at the helm, won't accept anything less.

"We obviously have a real wound from not being a part of the NCAA Tournament last year," Semrau said. "This team is determined to get this program back to that status. I think our chemistry is great and we have a strong vision. We're setting our sights on that goal."

After unprecedented success over a threeyear span, including two ACC regular season championship (2009-10), three straight NCAA No. 3 seeds (2009-11) and an NCAA Elite Eight appearance (2010), expectations weren't met during the 2011-12 season. Playing one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Seminoles finished 14-17.

In an effort to bounce back and prove last year was an aberration, Semrau has shaken up the squad and will build the team around its two biggest strengths experience and versatility.

The only letterman gone is Cierra Bravard, an All-ACC center who graduated last spring. Bravard was a true post who worked best out of the half-court set. Her departure will enable the versatile and athletic Seminoles to get out on the break and run.

"We're excited about the athleticism and the length that we will have on the defensive end of the floor to disrupt," Semrau said. "I think that will translate into a very fast-paced style. We had a big loss in Cierra Bravard. At the same time, it gives us an opportunity to run more. It's an exciting style of play. Our fans will really enjoy watching our team this year."

Point guards Morgan Toles, a senior who played four games a year ago after transferring from Auburn, and junior college star Yashira "Cheetah" Delgado will push the pace for a deep crop of wings - many who are also capable of sliding into the post when needed.

Toles led the SEC in assists with the Tigers in 2010-11 (5.15 apg) before transferring to FSU. She spent most of last season on the sideline recovering from injuries, but enters her final campaign at full strength.

Delgado, a Kissimmee, Fla., native, started her career at Arkansas before transferring to Hillsborough Community College last season where she led the Junior College ranks in assists and tallied a quadruple-double in a game.

"To have two point guards who are seasoned gives us a tremendous advantage," Semrau said.

Fifth-year seniors Alexa Deluzio and Chasity Clayton are the unquestioned leaders of the Seminoles and share the captaincy with Toles.

Deluzio averaged 13.1 ppg last season, playing poing guard as a necessity. One of the nation's best pure shooters, the Orlando, Fla., native will slide back over to her natural shooting guard position. Deluzio already ranks fifth in FSU history in three-pointers made (128) and set a single-season Seminoles' mark for free throw percentage a year ago (.839).

Arguably the most athletic player ever to wear the Garnet and Gold, Clayton has started at power forward, small forward as well as shooting guard and has career averages of 7.9 points and 5.0 rebounds per game. Expect the Panama City, Fla., native to lead the Noles in jaw-dropping plays.

"Lex will go back to what she does best and that's score the basketball," Semrau said. "We're going to have a lot of different ways to have her score. Chasity, we're going to expect her to step into a bigger role as a small forward. With Lex moving back to the wing, we have the opportunity to move Chasity back to her more natural position. She's a great rebounder and a great athlete. We will be able to use her athleticism and her strength, and I think she'll show a lot of improvement."

The Seminoles are very deep at the guard positions and will also receive a heavy contribution from senior Leo Rodriguez.

Rodriguez started 26 games last year and was one of the Seminoles' best playmakers averaging a team-best 2.8 assists per game. Rodriguez's work ethic and knowledge of the game are invaluable. She has spent the past five years playing for Spain's national team, including a recent spot on the World 3x3 Championships in August.

"Leo give us a lot of experience," Semrau said. "When she is on the floor she gives us another playmaker, one of our top three-point threats - and she's a leader."

Freshman Jakelle King-Gilchrist enters the mix and impressed during early workouts with her tenacity on defense and her ability to finish at the rim. The Teaneck, N.J. native reminds the coaching staff of 2011 ACC Defensive Player of the Year Christian Hunnicutt.

"Jakelle has picked up things so quickly," Semrau said. "She's a Jersey girl, and she brings a tough mentality that's going to help us this year."

In the post, Howard will look to build on her standout sophomore campaign. The junior from Toledo, Ohio, led the ACC in double-doubles (12) and was one of five players named to ACC All-Defensive team in addition to Third Team all-conference accolades.

"Natasha was a double-double every game last year and now she's extended her skill set and she is able to do a lot more different things for us," Semrau said. "We'll be able to move her around to a lot of different positions. She's a special player."

When she is not in the post or creating from the elbow, Howard will log minutes on the wing where her improved jump shot and driving ability will be on display.

Senior Chelsea Davis has been a reliable prescence off the bench the past two years. The 6-2 native of Middletown, Del., is expected to start in the post.

Davis, who averaged 9.2 ppg in just 19.2 mpg last season, is a deft scorer with both hands and will be counted on to be a prescence on defense, as well.

"Chelsea can score with her back to the basket and she can score facing the basket," Semrau said."She's a great defender. We're really excited about the athleticism and the skill we can play on the floor with her out there."

Clayton, redshirt sophomore Lauren Coleman, sophomore Kristi Mokube and redshirt freshman Ebony Wells could also see time at the forward spots.

The Seminoles begin the season on Nov. 11 when they host Samford in Tallahassee. Florida State's non-conference slate features various tests, including Florida and Iowa at home, Vanderbilt in Puerto Rico and Nebraska on the road. These matchups will prepare the Noles the ACC's first-ever 18-game conference schedule. The ACC season will begin on Dec. 30 when Florida State welcomes Boston College.

Junior forward Natasha Howard will be a force on both ends of the floor in 2012-13. She led the ACC in double-doubles (12) while earning all-conference and ACC All-Defensive Team honors last season.

LAST SEASON'S END FUELS CLAYTON

After being part of a team that had gone to three straight NCAA Tournaments, including an Elite Eight appearance during her redshirt freshman season in 2010, senior Chasity Clayton knew what she was missing last season when the Seminoles failed to earn a postseason berth. The Panama City, Fla., native said it hurt ... a lot. In her fifth and final year with the program, Clayton doesn't want to feel that pain again.

"We're learning from the past," Clayton said. "That's what has fired us up. You learn from your mistakes. It was disappointing not making it to NCAA's last season. Every year I had been here we had been to the NCAA Tournament, so I knew what it felt like and the hard work it took to get there. (Alexa Deluzio) and I, it's our last year. It's our last chance to put those blood, sweat and tears on the court and leave it all out there."

Expect the six-footer to do just that, using her impressive leaping ability to sky for rebounds, while using her exceptional athleticism on both ends of the floor. As redshirt seniors and captains she and Deluzio will also be expected to lead.

DELUZIO DRAWS INSPIRATION FROM SISTER

By today's standards Alexa Deluzio always had a big family. She has three younger siblings - Ben, Joe and Brynna. However, her family nearly doubled when she was 15. That's when her parents, Don and Sherri, made the decision to take in five other kids after their mother, Natalie Thomas, died of cancer in 2006. Thomas' daughter Krystal grew up playing basketball with and against Alexa in Orlando, and the two were teammates at First Academy High School where they won two state titles together.

Krystal, a year older than Alexa, went on to star at forward at Duke and currently plays for the Phoenix Mercury. From friends to teammates and now sisters, Deluzio has an inspiration on and off the court in Krystal. "I talk to my older sister all the time and she's playing in the WNBA right now," Deluzio

"I talk to my older sister all the time and she's playing in the WNBA right now," Deluzio said. "She helps me out and gives me advice. She's been through a lot. She played at Duke and now overseas in France and in the WNBA. That's something I would really like to pursue and do. She knows what it takes to get the next level so I'm feeding off of her. I'm taking her advice and applying it. It's been a big help."

Deluzio's 11-person family now includes Loren, Victor Jr., Ericka, Kelli and Krystal Thomas. In additon to Krystal and Alexa's atheltic success, Loren Thomas plays volleyball at Liberty and Erika plays volleyball at Connecticut. Don Deluzio played football at Colorado too, graduating in 1988.

FOR DAVIS, LIFE IS ART AND BASKETBALL

Senior forward Cheslea Davis eventually wants to direct animated movies. For right now, the studio art major is focused on directing the Seminoles to a winning season during her final year at Florida State.

"I love the intesity and the family-oriented atmosphere we've built with this team," Davis said. "We're a very close team on and off the court and I think that will translate to a successful season."

Davis draws a lot of parallels between art and hoops.

"With art and basketball, you always have to have an out-of-the box view on things," the Middletown, Del., native said. "You have to be creative on the court, too. My teammates know that I will always be creative with ways to get to the basket - to do whatever it takes to get the job done."

It's that workman-like mentality that has Davis positioned for a breakout season. She averaged 9.2 ppg over 19.2 minutes a year ago, but those numbers are expected to increase as she will be FSU's first or second option in the paint. The avid sketch artist is ready to create her masterpiece on the hardwood. "I'm ready," Davis said. "This is the game I love."

RODRIGUEZ COMPETES ON WORLD STAGE

DRIDA

No stranger to international tournaments, senior guard and Canary Islands, Spain, native Leonor Rodriguez competed in a new kind of basketball tournament this summer - an outdoor 3x3 competition.

After spending time with Spain's various youth and senior national teams through the years, Rodriguez was selected by her country to compete in the first-ever FIBA 3x3 World Championships in Athens, Greece in August. Competing against 24 other senior women's national teams, Spain made it out of pool play, but lost in the first round of single-elimination play in the grueling half-court event.

"It was a really cool experience," Rodriguez said. "It was tough mentally and physically because you didn't have many subs. You could only have four fouls. We had two games each day. We could only play in the afternoons because it would be too hot to play earlier. We played outside with the Greek buildings surrounding us. There were four half courts and a lot of people watching."

Rogriguez, who started 26 games for the Noles a year ago, hopes the experience will help jump start her senior season.

"Each international experience makes me think more about how you can win games from a mental standpoint," she said. "It has helped me a lot to understand the game better."

TOLES READY TO LEAD AT FSU

Senior point guard Morgan Toles is ready to play, and she is ready lead. The 5-9 Fayetteville, Ga., native played in just four games last season because of injuries. The Seminoles desperately needed a point guard last season, moving shooting guard Alexa Deluzio there. Now, they have one.

"My motivation for this season is just getting back on the floor and competing," Toles said. "I basically had a year off not being able to play, and now I'm just excited to get on the floor with my new team and we're ready to prove that we are who we used to be back in the day."

Toles led the SEC in assists (5.2 per game) as a sophomore at Auburn in 2010-11. She'll look to channel that form in her final season as the floor general and a tri-captain of the Noles.

"I love to distribute the ball," Toles said. "I'm very competitive. I don't like to lose. I've been working on improving my outside shot. I'm really excited about this upcoming year."

HOWARD COLLECTING MORE THAN KICKS

Junior forward Natasha Howard has a collection of over 30 pairs of shoes. They are overflowing in her closet and taking over her bedroom.

"I love shoes," Howard said. "If I buy an outfit, I have to get the shoes to go with it. If I don't have the shoes, I can't get the outfit."

Howard is also assembling an impressive haul on the basketball court. A 6-3 post who can also play on the wing, she led the ACC in double-doubles with 12 last season, while earned All-ACC Third Team honors and ACC All-Defensive Team accolades. In conference-only games, Howard averaged 9.4 rebounds per game - tops in the league.

"Grabbing rebounds - that's my job," she said. "That's what the team needs, so I'm going to do it. If I'm not out there grabbing lots of rebounds, we're not going to win games."

It's that mentality that has Howard poised to be one of the country's top forwards. If Howard can gather rebounds this season like she gathers shoes, the Toledo, Ohio, native will have to figure out a way to stuff all of her awards in that full closet next to her collection of kicks.

ENERGETIC MOKUBE SPARKS NOLES

When sophomore forward Kristi Mokube is in the game expect intensity.

"I'm driven by the thought of winning the game," said the 6-2 Phenix City, Ala., native. "I want every rebound. I want to deflate that ball. As players we want to make our coaches, our parents, our teammates - the fans - we want to make them proud. That fires me up."

During games, Mokube rarely sits still. If she isn't on the court diving for a loose ball, playing suffocating defense or corralling in a rebound, she is on the sideline - jumping up and down, clapping and cheering.

"Energy is contagious - negative or positive," Mokube said. "When you have that positive energy going, you will give your team that edge. I'm going to keep clapping no matter what. It's all about encouragement."

Last season, Mokube appeared in 27 games off the bench and scored 10 points and grabbed seven rebounds against Alabama A&M. This season, Mokube is expected to again provide that spark off the bench, but in an even more expanded role. She's more than willing oblige.

"I'm going to hustle," she said. "I'm going to be a tenacious defender. I want to be relentless."

COLEMAN EXCITED TO BE BACK

Redshirt sophomore Lauren Coleman has been itching for the season to start after missing all of last year with an injury and having to redshirt. "It feels good to be back," Coleman said. "The team has been very sup-portive; the coaches have been very supportive. I'm excited for this year. I'm excited to be back playing after a whole year out."

Coleman played in 10 games as a freshman in 2010-11 and showed flashes of her all-around game. The 6-0 forward from Lawrenceville, Ga., can pass, shoot and drive. Her strengths has always been her court vistion and her ability to process the game.

"It wasn't any fun sitting out," Coleman said. "You want to help your team out, but you can't do it physically."

So Coleman focused on communicating better with her teammates and learning what their tendancies are on the court.

"I learned how to watch the game better," she said. "I could see what my teammates like to do on the court. For example, I could grab Kristi (Mokube) on the sideline and tell her, 'You need to this.' It's definitely something that I will use to help the team this year."

IGTH SEASON

- THREE-TIME ACC COACH OF THE YEAR
- FSU'S ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH
- WBCA VICE-PRESIDENT
- ACC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS (2009-10)
- SEVEN STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES (2005-11)
- 2010 ELITE EIGHT
- THREE STRAIGHT NCAA NO. 3 SEEDS (2009-10-11)

She may be the winningest coach in Florida State women's basketball history, but one doesn't have to look at Sue Semrau's career record to know that she has built a successful and nationally-relevant program the right way.

Now in her 16th year at FSU, Semrau, a three-time winner of the ACC Coach of the Year award, has earned a reputation as a coach that not only keeps her team in the national rankings by leading her players to victory but also one that helps foster the personal and professional growth of the student-athletes.

Semrau became the 10th head coach in Florida State women's basketball history in 1997-98 and quickly took the program to new heights, guiding the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 10 years in 2001 before leading FSU to an unprecedented seven-straight NCAA Tournaments from 2005-11. She was named the ACC's top coach in 2001, 2005 and 2009 in addition to helping guide the United States U18 and U19 teams to gold medals in 2010 and 2011, respectively, as a national team assistant coach.

Over the last 10 years, FSU has advanced to the postseason nine times, averaged over 21 wins per season and had 13 different studentathletes capture All-ACC honors. Since 2000, eight Noles have been selected in the WNBA Draft.

Off the court, the Seminoles are just as decorated. Since Semrau took over the program, 27 athletes have earned Academic All-ACC honors, and a pair of Noles have been honored with the prestigious ACC Postgraduate Scholarship in current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff (who received the honor as a player in 2000-01) and most recently Christian Hunnicutt (2010-11).

Semrau's commitment to community service has also become a pillar of the program. The past four years, Semrau has partnered the Seminoles with Samaritan's Feet, a non-profit organization dedicated to changing lives through shoe distributions around the world. Semrau annually will coach a game barefoot in an effort to raise money, and the Seminoles took a break from the 2010 Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas to give back on Thanksgiving. Additionally, the Seminoles have performed a variety of services throughout the Tallahassee area and have been known to extend a helping hand when on the road, making visits to the Boys and Girls Club at the Coalition for the Homeless in Orlando and elementary schools in Harlem, West Chester and Wadsworth, Ohio and Martinsville, Ind., as well as the Duke Hospital in Durham, N.C.

2012-13 FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH SUE SEMRAU

Recent Success

The 2009-10 season served as the perfect example of just how strong Florida State's women's basketball program has become under Semrau. The Seminoles captured their second consecutive regular-season ACC co-championship and made it all the way to the Elite Eight of the annual NCAA Tournament as a programbest No. 3 seed for the second straight season. Along the way, FSU set the school record for most wins in a season with 29, most conference triumphs ever with 12 and highest national ranking ever at No. 9.

After the season was complete, star forward Jacinta Monroe was taken sixth overall in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics; a draft slot that was the highest ever for an FSU women's basketball player.

After a 24-8 campaign in 2010-11, the Seminoles extended their NCAA Tournament streak to seven consecutive years, nabbing another No. 3 seed. Along the way, forward Cierra Bravard nabbed honorable mention All-America honors and teamed with point guard Courtney Ward to capture All-ACC accolades.

She Changed the Culture

Semrau's 250 career win total with the Seminoles nearly doubles the second-most victories by an FSU coach (Marynell Meadors, 132), and her tenure has accounted for eight of FSU's 11 all-time NCAA Tournament appearances.

Semrau basically built the Seminoles from scratch, as she inherited a program coming off of a 5-22 record in 1996-97 and hadn't reached double figures in wins in four years.

By her fourth year, Semrau had completely turned the program around, capturing a 19-12 record and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in a decade. The 2000-01 season served as the jumpstart for unprecedented success.

FSU had only four 20-win seasons before Semrau guided the Noles to six 20-win seasons over a seven-year stretch beginning in 2004-05.

A Respected and Seasoned Coach

Semrau is so respected among her peers in the coaching community that she was elected vice president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in June 2010, and will become president in 2013.

Prior to coming to Florida State, Semrau served three years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Wisconsin under Jane Albright. While in Madison, she contributed to the Badgers' three-straight winning seasons and two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the program's first ever back-to-back 20-win seasons. Semrau first joined Albright at Northern Illinois in 1991 where she assisted in leading NIU to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Before her hiring at Northern Illinois, Semrau served as head women's basketball coach and assistant athletic director at Occidental College in Los Angeles for four years where she compiled a 51-47 overall record. She also coached soccer for two seasons and was responsible for the administrative duties of fundraising and promotions at the Division III institution.

Semrau also worked as the public relations and promotions director for the L.A. Heat professional soccer team from 1986-87, and the public relations director for the Seattle Storm soccer team in the previous year.

A native of Seattle, Wash., Semrau is a graduate of Shorecrest High School. She went on to attend the University of Puget Sound for two years. Semrau transferred to the University of California-San Diego in 1984 where she finished her career ranking 13th all-time in scoring and fourth all-time in assists. She graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in communications and received her master's degree in athletic administration from the University of Southern California in 1988.

SEMRAU THROUGH THE YEARS

1997-98

SUE SEMRAU is hired as Florida State's head coach — the program's third new coach in three years. The program is coming off of a 5-22 season, including a winless season in ACC play at 0-16. In her first season at the helm of the program, Sue Semrau leads Florida State to its most victories since 1992-93 (9-18) and its best ACC record (5-11) and finish since 1992-93, including its largest victory by margin over an ACC opponent (88-53 over Georgia Tech). Latavia Coleman was named Second Team All-ACC while Brooke Wyckoff was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

1998-99

THE SEMINOLES were 5-5 when leading scorer Latavia Coleman was lost for the season with a torn ACL and the team won just two more games the rest of the season and finished 7-20. Sue Semrau and her staff signed the No. 8 ranked recruiting class in the nation. Brooke Wyckoff was named Third Team All-ACC while April Traylor was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

1999-00

SUE SEMRAU LED FSU to an 12-18 record while the Seminoles played 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams and eight nationally-ranked teams. The Seminoles were competitive as seven of the team's ACC losses were by five points or less. FSU won its first round game at the ACC Tournament with a 65-60 victory over Maryland marking the first time the Seminoles had won a game in the tournament. Latavia Coleman scored 31 points in that game and became the first Seminole since 1993 to earn ACC Tournament First Team honors. For the season, Coleman was named Second Team All-ACC, Brooke Wyckoff was named Third Team All-ACC and to the All-Defensive Team while April Traylor earned Honorable Mention honors. Coleman became the first Seminole to be drafted to the WNBA as a third round selection and the 48th pick overall.

2000-01

IN SUE SEMRAU'S fourth year, she led Florida State to the program's best season in a decade. What a year it was and it started early as the Seminoles practiced 10 days in August before embarking on a 10-day European adventure to France and Switzerland where they played four games and won them by an average of 47 points. The Seminoles went on to record the program's most wins (19-12) in 10 years, advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1990-91 season and had their first winning season since 1991-92. FSU's 9-7 ACC record was the program's best record and finish (tied for 3rd) in league play. FSU finished ranked No. 25 nationally, the program's first national ranking since 1991. Semrau was named ACC Coach of the Year. Brooke Wyckoff was named a First Team All-ACC selection and was the first FSU player since 1992-93 to garner such status. She also earned ACC All-Defensive Team honors for the second straight season. Levys Torres and April Traylor were named Third Team All-ACC. Wyckoff was selected in the second round as the 26th overall pick in the WNBA Draft while Torres was a third round selection (37th pick)

2001-02

THE SEMINOLES once again played some of the nation's toughest opponents with five games against Top 10 opponents, 11 games total against Top 25 teams and 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams. Six of FSU's losses (13-15) were by four points or less. Tasheika Morris earned Third Team All-ACC honors. April Traylor was Honorable Mention All-ACC while Genesis Choice was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

2002-03

FLORIDA STATE made its second post-season tournament appearance in three years, playing in the WNIT and advancing to the second round. Sue Semrau guided the Seminoles to another winning season (17-13), the second in three years, and to a fourthplace finish in the ACC, which was rated No. 2 among 32 conferences in RPI rankings. Tasheika Morris earned Second Team AlI-ACC honors while Ganiyat Adeduntan garnered Honorable Mention ACC AlI-Freshman Team honors.

2003-04

DESPITE THE LOSS of starter LaQuinta Neely just six games into the season, Sue Semrau led the Seminoles to another WNIT appearance, marking the third postseason tournament appearance in four years and to a 15-15 record. Tasheika (Morris) Allen was named Second Team All-ACC while rookie Shante Williams earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors and All-Freshman Team accolades.

2004-05

THE FLORIDA STATE women's basketball program suffered a tragedy with the sudden death of rising sophomore Ronalda Pierce in June 2004. Sue Semrau provided the strength and leadership to pull her team through the devastation and introduced Phase Two of the program which was about personal responsibility, selflessness and a championship mentality. The Seminoles flourished in the new system and established the best start in school history (12-0) on their way to the program's first 20-win season (24-8) since 1990-91. With a second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament, FSU made its third straight postseason tournament appearance and fourth in a fiveyear stretch. FSU spent five weeks nationally-ranked and earned its first Associated Press ranking since 1991. Semrau, who guided FSU to another fourth-place ACC finish, was recognized with her second ACC Coach of the Year award while Roneeka Hodges became the third Seminole to earn First Team All-ACC honors. Ganiyat Adeduntan and Alicia Gladden earned Honorable Mention All-ACC recognition while Gladden was also named to the ACC All-Defensive Team. Hodges earned Kodak Region All-American honors, was a WBCAAII Star and became FSU's highest WNBA Draft pick as the first player called in the second round and the 15th pick aostenal.

2005-06

FOLLOWING A 10-DAY tour of Italy in August in which the Seminoles went 4-0 and averaged 97.8 points per game while holding opponents to 47.8 points per game, FSU continued the success it enjoyed in 2004-05. For just the second time in program history, and first since 1990 and 1991, Florida State participated in back-to-back NCAA Tournaments as Sue Semrau guided the Seminoles to a 20-10 and a second round NCAA Tourney appearance. The Seminoles also enjoyed back-to-back 20-win seasons for just the second time in program history. The Seminoles earned their most ACC wins with a 10-4 record and another fourth-place finish. Semrau became FSU women's basketball's winningest coach by victories. Alicia Gladden earned Third Team All-ACC honors and was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team for the second straight season. Britany Miller garnered ACC All-Freshman Team honors. FSU had a lot to celebrate with the Class of 2006. The first class to lead FSU to seven or more ACC victories in four consecutive seasons, this group led the team to a record fourth-straight postseason appearance and averaged 19 wins per season which is the most in the Semrau era and second most in FSU history.

2006-07

THE 10TH SEASON under Sue Semrau couldn't have been any sweeter as her 2006-07 squad made school history. A 68-61 victory over Stanford in the second round of the NCAA Tournament sent the Seminoles to their first NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Florida State had its magical run cut short 55-43 by LSU in the semifinals of the Fresno Regional. The Seminoles ended the season with a 24-10 record to mark the first time in school history that the program put together three-straight 20-win seasons and went to the NCAA Tournament three years in a row. Florida State cracked the top 20 of the final USA Today/ Coaches Poll as its No. 19 ranking is the highest end-of-year ranking and matched the highest rating ever at any point in the season. Senior Alicia Gladden finished her career as the Seminoles' all-time leader in steals at 275 swipes on her way to her second Third-Team All-ACC selection. Rookie forward Jacinta Monroe swatted 63 balls - the third-highest total in school history - to earn her a spot on the ACC All-Freshman team. Within the league ranks, Florida State matched a program-best by finish the league ledger at 10-4.

2007-08

GOOD TIMES continued to roll along for the Florida State women's basketball program as Sue Semrau led the Noles to their fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament where they won a first round game for the fourth consecutive season. The Seminoles downed nationally-ranked Ohio State by a score of 60-49 in Des Moines, Iowa to move Semrau to a perfect 5-0 in the NCAA First Round games. FSU had an All-ACC Honorable Mention pick in Tanae Davis-Cain as well as an All-ACC Academic selection in Mara Freshour while also picking up ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors as well. The Seminoles began the season ranked 19th in the country and went up to a program-best No. 18 during the course of the campaign. Semrau led the Seminoles to a 7-7 mark in the ACC, which placed them in a tie for fifth place in the league. Those seven victories gave Semrau a total of 75 ACC triumphs for her career, which is the eighth-best mark in the history of the league. In addition, senior Shante Williams broke the school record for career assists with 451, after putting together three seasons in which she tallied at least 100 dishes. Semrau continued to the lead FSU to in-state dominance as the Seminoles won 12 consecutive games against rivals from the Sunshine State, topped by a thrilling 50-49 victory over Miami during the final week of the regular season. Florida State was one of the top three-point shooting teams in the conference and dropped in a school-record 182 three-pointers, besting the old mark by 16. In addition to being prolific, the Seminoles were accurate from behind the arc, hitting 35.7 percent, which is the best rate since the 1988-89 squad set the record of 43.4 percent the year the three-point line was instituted. Setting the record was a team effort as seven players made at least one three pointers and five hit at least 10 three balls during the season.

2008-09

THE SEMINOLES returned to the tournament for a fifth consecutive time and turned in one of the best seasons in school history. Sue Semrau led her squad to a 26-8 record. Sue Semrau earned her third career ACC Coach of the Year honor for her performance on the bench as she once again helped lead the Seminoles to new heights. The Seminoles earned their highest NCAA Tournament seed in Seminole annals as well when they earned the third seed in the Trenton Regional. Seniors Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis-Cain wrapped up their impressive careers in 08-09 as the duo went out on top with one of the finest seasons for the Seminole program. Freshour and Davis-Cain each earned ACC All-Tournament Second Team honors for their roles in helping Florida State to the second round of the ACC Tournament. The Seminoles were road warriors in 08-09 as they posted a perfect 10-0 record on the road, including a 7-0 mark in the ACC which helped propel them to a share of the regular season title with Maryland. Jacinta Monroe set a new school single-season blocks record with 84 and became FSU's all-time blocks leader with 225 in just three years. Monroe would be honored by the ACC when she was named to the ACC All-Defensive teams for her efforts on the defensive end of the floor. Also earning plaudits for the Seminoles was freshman Cierra Bravard who turned in a stellar opening campaign en route to being named to the ACC All-Freshman team. In addition to Monroe's defensive honors she was also named to the All-ACC Second Team, while Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis-Cain each earned third team honors. The Seminoles advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the seventh consecutive time

2009-10

FLORIDA STATE followed up its fantastic 2008-09 season with an even better year in 2009-10. When the year had finished, head coach Sue Semrau was able to look back on it as not just the best season in her career but in the history of the program. The Seminoles earned the second-straight regular-season ACC co-championship and advanced to the Big Dance for the sixth consecutive season. Tallahassee served as the host site for the Dayton Regional and FSU promptly dispatched St. John's and Louisiana Tech to advance to the Sweet 16. In Dayton, Semrau's Seminoles took down Mississippi State to earn an Elite Eight berth for the first time ever. Florida State finished the season with a school-record 29 wins to go along with just is losses. The team finished 12-2 in the very difficult ACC for the second year in a row and had two players - Courtney Ward (second team) and Jacinta Monroe (first team) - earn All-Conference accolades. After the season, Semrau's star pupil, Monroe, was selected sixth overall in the WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics, which is the highest draft slot ever for an FSU women's basketball player.

2010-11

IN 2010-11, head coach Sue Semrau's 14th at Florida State, saw the Noles continue their run of successful seasons by advancing to their seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament, grabbing their secondstraight No. 3 seed. FSU finished 24-8 - the sixth 20-win season under Semrau - and 11-3 in the ACC. Led by honorable mention All-American and All-ACC First Team honoree Cierra Bravard, the Garnet and Gold made it to the second round of the "Big Dance" and finished ranked No. 15 in the country. Senior guards Christian Hunnicutt and Courtney Ward also wrapped up their careers with honors. Hunnicutt became the first Nole named ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while Ward captured third-team All-ACC accolades. Ward ended her career as FSU's all-time leader in three-pointers and assists. Freshman sensation Natasha Howard averaged 10.6 ppg en route to third-team Freshman All-America and All-ACC Freshman Team honors. Ward led the conference in three-point shooting, while sophomore Alexa Deluzio led the ACC in three-point percentage in conference play as FSU led the ACC in team field goal percentage and three-point percentage for the second straight year.

2011-12

THE SEMINOLES streak of seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances ended in 2011-12 as FSU finished with a 14-17 record. The Garnet & Gold felt the departure of all-conference point guard Courtney Ward and were forced to move its best scorer and shooter Alexa Deluzio to point guard. Deluzio, a junior, averaged 13.2 ppg and ended up leading the ACC in free throw percentage (91.9 percent) in conference games. She also set an FSU single-season mark from the charity stripe in all games (83.9 percent). Sophomore Natasha Howard had a breakout season, leading the conference in double-doubles (12), while earning All-ACC Third Team and ACC All-Defensive Team accolades. Howard led the Seminoles in rebounds. blocks and steals. Her 9.4 rebound average in 16 ACC games led the conference. Senior post Cierra Bravard wrapped up her career with an All-ACC Third Team honor. She led the Seminoles in scoring for the second straight season (14.2 ppg) and ranked second in the ACC in field goal percentage (.546)

LANCE WHITE

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH 10th Season Texas tech '96

It's no coincidence that the best nine-year stretch in FSU women's basketball history has coincided with Lance White's tenure as an assistant coach with the Seminoles.

During his nine years with the Garnet and Gold, FSU has a 67 percent winning percentage and has averaged nearly 22 wins per season. The Seminoles went to seven straight NCAA Tournaments from 2005-11 and have six 20-victory seasons since White came aboard. Florida State also captured back-to-back regular season ACC titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight.

Entering his 10th campaign with the Garnet and Gold, White was promoted to associate head coach in June.

Considered by head coach Sue Semrau to be one of the rising stars of the coaching profession when she hired him in 2003, White has helped FSU reach new heights and brought an infectious energy to the program.

White has directed the FSU defense and offense during his tenure as well as been one of the country's top recruiters. Last year, CollegeInsider.com named him one of the nation's Top 20 assistant coaches in the country.

Previously the defensive coordinator for the past seven years, White added the Seminoles' offense to his direction last season. He continues to hold responsibilities with recruiting, film and opponent breakdown in addition to assisting with camps each summer.

Florida State has experienced two of its greatest defensive seasons under White's tutelage the past few years as the team set a school record during the 2008-09 campaign by limiting opponents to 61.1 points per game. The Seminoles then broke that record in 2009-10 with a season that saw them hold opponents to just 60.8 points per contest.

Since White's arrival in 2003, many Seminoles have captured unprecedented individual success. Five players have been picked in the WNBA Draft, seven Seminoles have earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and FSU has nabbed 23 all-conference awards. Christian Hunnicutt was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year in 2011 and Jacinta Monroe was selected No. 6 by the Washington Wizards in the 2010 WNBA Draft.

White was well prepared when he arrived at Florida State. He came from Texas Tech where he spent 10 seasons, including seven years as an assistant coach, with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp.

Some of White's responsibilities at Texas Tech included individual workouts, scouting reports, perimeter and post player development and all aspects of recruiting, including mail correspondence and recruiting visits. White also served as the academic liaison for the women's basketball team, directing study hall and monitoring academic progress while also handling player relations.

During White's time in Lubbock, Texas Tech won three Big XII championships and advanced to sevenstraight NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet Sixteen and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 National Championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach.

While in Lubbock, Texas, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen. Among the players he influenced were National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA Player of the Year Sheryl Swoopes and also Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a Master's Degree in sports administration in August of 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January of 1993. As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

White is an NCAA certified recruiter and member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. He is married to the former Melanie Smith, who is a professor at Florida A&M University. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.

COACHING STAFF

RONALD HUGHEY

ASSISTANT COACH First Season (9th Overall) Limestone '06

Florida State head women's basketball coach Sue Semrau announced the addition of assistant coach Ronald Hughey to her staff on April 23.

"We are very excited to welcome Ron to our Florida State family," Semrau said. "Coach Hughey is a great fit for our staff. His enthusiasm is contagious and he has a passion for developing players. He is a strong defensive coach, an area where our team needs immediate improvement. He is a tremendous relationship builder, which will bolster our efforts not only with our current players, but in recruiting top talent to FSU."

A rising star in the women's basketball coaching ranks, Hughey (pronounced: Huey) spent the last two seasons as an assistant coach at Texas. In two years with the Longhorns, Hughey helped Texas advance to back-to-back NCAA Tournaments.

"There are not many places that are like Florida State," Hughey said. "I've had great experiences, coaching and playing in the state of Florida, so when Sue [Semerau] gave me an opportunity to come back and be at the mecca of Florida, at Florida State, I jumped at it. This is a great program and a great university. I'm really happy for this opportunity. I'm ready to follow Coach Sue and get back to the glory days she built here."

Hughey has gained a reputation for being one of the nation's top recruiters and post developers. He worked extensively with 2012 Big 12 All-Defensive honoree and post standout Ashley Gayle while at Texas, and seven players earned all-conference honors during his stint in Austin.

This past fall, he helped Texas sign the No. 13 recruiting class according to ESPN Hoopgurlz, including McDonald's All-American Imani Stafford. In 2011, he helped sign the nation's No. 10 class.

"I'm so happy for Ron and I'm so happy for Sue," former Texas head coach Gail Goestenkors said. "I know them both very well. I think they will be able to work very well together. Ron is very passionate about coaching - probably the most passionate coach I've ever met. He has a work ethic that is second to none, too. He's a tremendous post coach who brings a lot of enthusiasm. He loves defense, and I know he'll love coaching at Florida State. He's a great fit."

Hughey has also been an assistant coach at Rutgers,

UCF, South Carolina and South Carolina State.

He replaces former assistant coach Angie Johnson, who is pursuing other opportunities.

Prior to Texas, Hughey spent the 2009-10 season as an assistant coach at Rutgers, where he played a primary role in the Scarlet Knights' recruiting efforts, as well as coaching post players. In 2008-09, Hughey served as the recruiting coordinator at UCF and helped the Golden Knights to their first Conference USA postseason title and assisted in the signing of Gevenia Carter, the first Top-100 recruit in the history of the program.

A native of Columbia, S.C. Hughey also was an assistant coach at South Carolina in 2007-08 and at South Carolina State from 2004-07.

Before hitting the college circuit, Hughey developed several Division I players as an assistant varsity boys coach at W. J. Kennan High School in Columbia, S.C. (2001-04). Hughey also worked as a scholastic coach at C.A. Johnson Preparatory Academy and Alcorn Middle School, both in South Carolina.

BROOKE WYCKOFF

ASSISTANT COACH Second Season Florida State '01

She sparked the rise of the Florida State women's basketball program as a standout player on the court from 1997 to 2001. Ten years later, Brooke Wyckoff returned to the Seminoles - this time on the bench, joining Sue Semrau's revamped staff for the 2011-12 season.

Wyckoff replaced former associate head coach Cori Close, now the head coach at UCLA.

Without a doubt, Wyckoff was one of the greatest Seminoles ever to wear the Garnet and Gold on the hardwood before playing nine seasons in the WNBA. Wyckoff's experience at the professional level has given the Seminoles a rare commodity on the bench.

Along with the immediate credibility her hoops career provides, Wyckoff possesses an amiable personality that made her an immediate hit on the recruiting trail. She also serves as the Seminoles' program's liaison with the FSU academic support staff in addition to her on-court duties.

In her first year back at FSU, Wyckoff, a star versatile forward during her career, helped tutor all-conference forwards Cierra Bravard and Natasha Howard. Bravard later signed a professional contract with the WNBA's San Antonio SilverStars, while Howard, a sophomore, led the ACC in double-doubles (12).

A native of West Chester, Ohio, the talented post/ wing was one of the top high school players in the country before signing a National Letter of Intent with FSU in 1997 in what was Semrau's first season in Tallahassee.

In her rookie year, Wyckoff made an immediate impact as she set a single-season record at the time with 80 blocks on her way to earning ACC All-Freshman Team honors. Conference accolades continued to roll in during her next three years with a pair of All-ACC Third Team selections (1999 and 2000) and finally an All-ACC First Team honor as a senior in 2001.

Wyckoff's 1,350 career points is still the 11th-most in school history and her 804 rebounds rank sixth. She ranks No. 2 at FSU in career blocks with 209. She averaged 12.4 ppg and 7.4 rpg while starting all 109 games she played in her career.

Perhaps most importantly, Wyckoff was the cornerstone of the Seminoles' first winning season in nine years as the team posted a 19-12 record in 2001 and finished fourth in the ACC. That season culminated in the school's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 10 years and All-America honors for Wyckoff, which was the first national accolade for an FSU women's basketball player since 1993. She capped her career by scoring 14.6 ppg and pulling down 6.6 rpg that final season.

In addition to boasting the honor of being just one of four former 'Noles to have their jerseys retired, Wyckoff was also an outstanding performer in the classroom. She is the only Seminole to ever earn four All-ACC Academic Women's Basketball Team honors as well as four nods to the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

In 2001 she earned an ACC Postgraduate scholarship and was named to the ACC Legends Class of 2010. In 2002, she was named to the 51-member ACC 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team.

She also played with the USA Women's Basketball Select Team for three consecutive summers.

In 2011, Wyckoff was inducted into the Butler County Sports Hall of Fame as well as the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame and the Greater Cincinnati Basketball Hall of Fame.

Following her senior year, Wyckoff was selected by the Orlando Miracle in the second round of the WNBA Draft. She spent two seasons in Orlando before the team moved to Connecticut where she played another three seasons with the Sun.

She was then selected by the Chicago Sky in the 2006 WNBA Expansion draft and played for that franchise until 2009.

During her nine-year WNBA career, Wyckoff appeared in 242 games.

After concluding her professional basketball career, Wyckoff served as an assistant girls basketball coach at Lakota East High School in Cincinnati, Ohio.

MELISSA BRUNER

DIRECTOR OF Basketball operations Seventh Season Coe College '94

In order to ensure that everything is running smoothly away from the basketball court, Florida State needs a "coach" behind the scenes. Now in her seventh season with the FSU women's basketball program, Melissa Bruner has the daunting task of keeping everyone on the same page as Director of Basketball Operations.

A former collegiate head coach and a foursport letterwinner in college, Bruner is able to deftly handle a wide range of responsibilities in all facets of the program. She coordinates all areas of team travel and is also in charge of facility usage and management of all practices and games.

She assists head coach Sue Semrau with scheduling and serves as the program's liaison with the athletics department's administration. Bruner oversees the equipment operations for the program and assists with the Seminole girls' summer camps. In addition to her administrative duties with the program, Bruner is also in her fifth season working as the color analyst for the radio broadcast of all FSU women's basketball games.

Bruner came to Florida State after serving four seasons as assistant athletics director and head women's basketball coach at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The Kohawks reached the IIAC Tournament all four years of her tenure and advanced to the quarterfinals in her final season.

Bruner's players earned six all-conference honors. Bruner and Semrau previously worked together for two seasons at the University of Wisconsin-Madison while Semrau was an assistant coach.

Bruner was Director of Women's Basketball Operations for the Badgers for seven years where she assisted in public relations, team travel and practice arrangements. Prior to her duties at Wisconsin, Bruner earned a master's degree in physical education, with a concentration in athletic administration, from Ohio University in 1995. She received her business administration and accounting degree with a minor in physical education from Coe College in 1994.

As a Kohawk, Bruner earned Academic All-Midwest Conference honors in softball, basketball, tennis and volleyball.

In recognition for her athletic and academic achievements, she was named a national GTE Academic All-American her senior year of college.

IN MEMORY

Matthew Schmauch, an Assistant Director of Academic Support who worked with the women's basketball program for four seasons, was instrumental in the academic success of FSU student-athletes. His influence went beyond the classroom. He was an ambassador, a mentor, a friend, a big brother, a fan — truly a shining example of where hard work and determination can take you. This award, established in his memory, is given annually to the women's basketball player who exemplifies these characteristics of leadership.

The Florida State Athletics Department lost a dear member of its Seminole family on June 13, 2003. Matt Schmauch, 29, an Assistant Director for the Athletic Academic Support Program at Florida State, died from anaphylaxis due to an allergic reaction to nuts while representing FSU at the N4A convention in St. Louis, Mo.

A native of Allen Park, Mich., Schmauch had been a valuable member of the athletic academic support staff since 1996. A glowing role model in the classroom, Schmauch earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Florida State in 1995 and went on to receive a master's degree in athletic administration from FSU in 1996.

In 2003-04, the Florida State women's basketball program created a special award in honor of Schmauch.

Daughter, sister, classmate, teammate, role model, friend and Seminole. Ronalda Pierce meant so much to so many people. Although with us a short time, Ronalda's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of the Seminole family. Ronalda represented courage, heart, determination, growth and joy. It was these characteristics that allowed her to blossom into the person that was cherished by all who knew her. The recipient of this award exemplifies these same qualities of perseverance and heart.

On June 8, 2004, the Florida State women's basketball program lost a special member of its family with the sudden death of Ronalda Pierce, a 6-5 post player from Ashburn, Ga. In 2004-05, the players wore #55 on their shoes in her honor.

The Seminoles paid tribute to Ronalda by celebrating the time, although too short, that they had with her. In 2005, an award was established in her memory.

While Ronalda Pierce remains on the minds and in the hearts of those associated with Florida State women's basketball, the 2006-07 season had an even greater meaning as it would have represented Ronalda's senior season. Members of her recruiting class, Nikki Anthony, Shante Williams and Alicia Gladden, proudly hold up their hands signifying the No. 55; Ronalda's jersey

2012-13 FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame enjoys a rich tradition. Florida State is fortunate to enjoy an athletics program that reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

There are 277 members of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. The first and largest class was inducted in 1977 and there has been a class inducted every fall since with the exception of 1996 when Florida State spent the year celebrating its 50th Anniversary of athletics.

Five former women's basketball greats, Sue Galkantas, Tia Paschal, Wanda Burns-Jackson, Brooke Wyckoff and Bev Burnett are members of the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame.

SUE GALKANTAS HALL OF FAME 1989

Florida State may never forget the scoring power of Sue Galkantas, who with an amazing 2,323 career points, is the most prolific scorer in Seminole basketball history. That total is the most points ever scored by a player, male or female - in Florida State history.

By the time Galkantas graduated in 1984, her name was listed in nearly every statistical category in the FSU records book. Averaging 19.4 points per game in her career — a mark that still ranks number one on the career lists - was just a glimpse of the impact that she had as a Seminole. In her rookie year, she broke the FSU freshman scoring record and was named a freshman All-American in numerous publications. By her sophomore year, Galkantas had already scored her 1,000th point and established herself as one of the top 20 scorers in the nation. In her junior season, she led FSU to a 24-6 record and to its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Overall, she scored in double figures in 115 of 120 games and still holds six career and single-season records. In 1989, Galkantas also became the first female FSU athlete to have her number retired.

TIA PASCHAL HALL OF FAME 1999

The Florida State women's basketball program enjoyed its greatest success during the fouryear career of Tia Paschal, who lettered for the Seminoles from 1989 to 1993.

A forward from Thomson, Ga., Paschal was an immediate contributor for Florida State and was a three-year starter after averaging 20 minutes of play as a rookie. She ended her career averaging 19.4 points and 7.4 rebounds as a senior while earning first team All-ACC honors and second team All-America honors by the American Women's Sports Federation. During her career, she helped lead the Seminoles to two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989-90 and 1990-91 as well as a Metro Conference championship in the 1990-91 season.

Paschal's versatility made her a weapon in every facet of the game which is evident by the records she still holds at Florida State. She holds the records free throws made (14) in a game and is second for steals in a career (269). Paschal is also among FSU's top 10 in five season and six career records and ranks second all-time in scoring with 1,662 points.

Honors came in abundance for Paschal throughout her career. After redshirting the 1988-89 season with a knee injury, Paschal took the conference by storm as a freshman, earning Metro Conference All-Rookie Team honors. She earned Metro All-Tournament Team honors two seasons and was twice named the conference Player of the Week.

Paschal continued playing the game that she loves professionally. Since her graduation in criminology in 1993, Paschal's professional overseas experience has included stops in Germany, Sweden and Spain. She also played one season with the Charlotte Sting of the WNBA.

WANDA BURNS HALL OF FAME 2006

Wanda Burns overcame adversity to become a successful women's basketball player at Florida State. One of Marynell Meadors first recruits, Burns was a highly-touted 5-8 guard out of Macon, Georgia.

Though she carried a 3.0 GPA in high school, her SAT scores were below the required score to meet the new NCAA Prop 48 rule and she had to sit out her freshman season. Burns used the year to hit the books and get acclimated to campus life.

She hit the court in 1988-89 with something to prove. She averaged 11 points a game and led the team with 92 assists, helping FSU to its first winning season since 1983.

She electrified the team in 1989-90 and sparked FSU to a 21-9 record and to the NCAA Tournament. Burns set an FSU record for free throw percentage and led the team in scoring, three pointers and steals.

In 1990-91, her final season, Burns was named Metro Conference Player of the Week, set a single game record with 10 steals in a game and led the team in three-point shooting. FSU enjoyed one of its most successful seasons with a record of 25-7. Burns led the Metro Conference in scoring at 18.5 points per game and scored double figures in 38 consecutive games. She was named Metro Conference Tournament MVP and Player of the Year and also earned Hanes Her Way NCAA Woman of the Year and Second Team All-American honors.

Burns still ranks among FSU's top 10 in four career and 11 single-season statistical categories.

BROOKE WYCKOFF HALL OF FAME 2011

Florida State women's basketball assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff solidified her place among the all-time great 'Noles in September 2011 with her induction into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame.

Wyckoff, who was a star forward for head coach Sue Semrau's first hoops teams from 1997-2001, became the fourth women's basketball player to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sept. 2 at a ceremony at the University Center Club, joining Sue Galkantas (Class of 1989), Tia Paschal (Class of 1999) and Wanda Burns (Class of 2006).

"Getting inducted into Florida State's Hall of Fame is the biggest honor I have ever received," Wyckoff said. "It's amazing. It's surreal and an honor to be among the amazing athletes that are in it. It was a great opportunity for me to reflect on my career here, and to thank everybody publicly made it so special."

Wyckoff and the rest of her illustrious class – Tony Brown, Sam Cowart, Marshall McDougall, Stephen Parry, Chris Weinke and Andy Miller – were also honored on Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Cambell Stadium during FSU football's 2011 season-opening football game versus Louisiana-Monroe.

The latest addition to Semrau's coaching staff, Wyckoff was hired by her alma mater this summer. Wyckoff spent nine years in the WNBA, playing for the Orlando Miracle, Connecticut Sun and the Chicago Sky.

Wyckoff was one of the top high school players in the country but chose to leave West Chester, Ohio to play for Sue Semrau and Florida State. She made an immediate impact setting an FSU record with 80 blocked shots as a freshman in 1997.

She went on to earn All-ACC honors as a sophomore and junior and capped her senior season (2001) with first team All-ACC honors as well as All-America honors. She was also FSU's only four-time Academic All-ACC performer and received an ACC postgraduate scholarship.

Wyckoff scored 1,350 points over her storied FSU career and finished as the second best shot blocker the Seminoles have ever produced with 209. She grabbed 804 career rebounds and was also ranked among FSU's all-time Top 10.

BEV BURNETT HALL OF FAME 2012

Tallahassee native Bev Burnett rounded out her Florida State career as one of the most prolific scorers in school history. A four-year letterwinner from 1985-89, Burnett finished her career with 1,509 points, a mark that ranks fifth in FSU history. She also ranks sixth all-time in scoring average at 15.6 points per game.

A team captain, the 5-9 forward earned All-Metro Conference First Team honors in both 1988 and 1989 and led the Seminoles in scoring in each of those seasons with averages of 21.3 and 15.9 points per game, respectively. Her 21.3 points per game average in 1988 still ranks as the second highest single-season mark in Florida State women's basketball history.

Burnett is a six-time member of the FSU 30-point club and her 34 points vs. both Florida A&M (1986) and Virginia Tech (1988) and ranks sixth for most points scored in a game by a Seminole. She was also named a third team All-American by the American Women's Sports Federation in 1988 and has numerous conference player of the week honors to her credit.

She became the fifth women's basketball player inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame.

2012-13 FSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ON THE RADIO AT WNLS-AM 1270

Florida State fans can follow the Seminoles whether on the road or at home as WNLS-AM (1270) of Tallahassee will carry every FSU women's basketball game this season.

Every game will also be broadcast over the Internet by accessing www.seminoles.com, the official athletics website of Florida State University.

Ryan Pensy will return for his 10th season calling play-by-play for the Florida State women's basketball team. In 2011, Pensy called his seventh NCAA women's basketball tournament. He co-hosts the "Sue Semrau TV Show" and enters his eighth season as the coordinating producer for the Seminole IMG College Sports Network football broadcasts.

In 2011, Pensy was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Digital Media. As the Assistant Director of Athletics for Digital Media, Pensy oversees the official athletics website Seminoles.com. Pensy is responsible for identifying and overseeing the execution of an annual strategic new media plan for all intercollegiate athletics teams using original editorial and photographic content, live and on-demand audio/video-streaming and social networking to increase brand awareness, generate revenue and enhance website traffic/user activity.

Since becoming a part of the digital media industry, Pensy has launched the successful Seminoles. com podcast channel which has drawn national attention for its content and creativity. He serves as a key liaison for internal and external web development, marketing, social media and video production partnerships.

Pensy started his career as the Information Technology Manager for Florida State athletics. In 2005, he was named Florida State's first Director of Digital Media. Pensy graduated from the University of Central Florida in 2002 where he earned a degree in Radio/TV with a minor in computer science. He went on to receive his master's degree in sport administration from Florida State in 2003, during which time he served as a graduate assistant in the Seminole ticket and business offices.

Joining Pensy for the sixth consecutive season in the role of color analyst will be FSU Women's Basketball Director of Basketball Operations Melissa Bruner.
